

BOTANY BAY - LEARNING RESOURCES - VIDEOS

Click on the images to access videos

		Project Films
Introduction to BOTANY BAY	Winter	Spring	Summer	Autumn

		Short Talks
Principle 1: We Belong to the Earth: We Do Not Own the Earth	Principle 2: We Listen and Observe	Principle 3: We Work With Mother Nature, Not Against	Principle 4: We Look Forward Seven Generations	Principle 5: We Respect and Show Gratitude

Anishinaabe Creation Story	Watching the Squash Grow	Two Kinds of Science	Organic Gardening	An Ojibwe Introduction

		Short Talks

Plants as Relatives	Melinda's Message to the Gardening Clubs	Practical Tips for Indigenous-inspired Gardening	Heritage Seeds	Making an Offering

Kinship	The Symphony of Nature	Twenty-Seven Words for "Soil"	Indigenous Knowledge for Future Solutions	Ceremony

A Māori Introduction	Observing the Environment	Kumara: Sweet Potatoes	Understanding the Stars & the Sun	Gardens, Ethics & Medicine

		Short Talks

Maori Creation Story				Reverence

BORDER CROSSINGS
ORIGINS

Made possible with

Heritage Fund

 INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF
 FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
 2021

www.botanybay.org.uk